1. ASDMAE

GAB 1923-1943: 216 (AF 21); 208 (AF 13); 211 (AF 16); 225 (AF 30).

Documents from the Cabinet of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (Gabinetto).
(In Italian)

A collection of telegrams and reports by the civil governor of Zadar and other Dalmatian personalities (from 1921 onwards). It is important for details on episodes of violence related to the emergence of Fascism along the border of the Italian territory of Zadar. Also, it offers an insight in the communication between some deputies, senators and notables related to Zadar with the Italian government.

2. ACS

MRF: 53; 43;

Exhibition of the Fascist Revolution (Mostra della Rivoluzione Fascista)

In 1932, the fascist regime organized a sensational exhibition to celebrate the 10th anniversary of the March on Rome. The collection contains very precious material on the early activism of Fasci from all over Italy. Regarding, Zadar, letters from the first to the Central Political Secretary provide important information on the years 1919-1931.

Propaganda for Fiume and Dalmatia (Agitazione pro Fiume e Dalmazia)

This collection from the Italian Ministry includes reports on irredentist activities during World War One and reveals details on the background of the widespread later evolution from D'Annunzio's legionnaires movement to local Fascism.

PCM UCNP: 23;25;26;35;36;50;53;51;207;216;

Central Office for the newly annexed Provinces (Ufficio Centrale per le Nuove Province)

The office was created by the Italian Prime Minister to manage the administrative and political transition from Habsburg to Italian rule in the territories occupied and annexed after World War One. The documents consist of reports, correspondence, telegrams and miscellanea on the political and social life of Zadar in the period 1919-1922.

MIN INT PS: 1925= 90; 93; 101; 109; 116; 128; 140;

Ministry of the Interior, Department for Public Security (Pubblica Sicurezza)

This collection is organized year by year and includes reports, mostly by the prefects, on significant political events in each Province of the Kingdom. Regarding early Fascism in Zadar, this material is relevant for studying the transformation of the party from an oppositional to a governmental entity.
